

The Home HANDYMAN

Home Handyman magazine bounces back!

We are pleased to announce a new publisher for The Home Handyman Magazine which will be relaunched as a bi-monthly magazine with the April edition going on sale in retail outlets soon!

WJ Lindeque cc trading as BB Print (who also publish SA Bass Magazine) are the new owners, and will be taking on some of Home Handyman Magazine's well known and popular writers like Denis Lock and Gina Hartoog et al. Gareth Greathead re-joins as Editor and a team of dedicated and passionate staff are being assembled to bring you the articles, advice and guidance on DIY and home improvements that have come to be expected from this stable.

We hope you will join us on this new journey and be part of the Home Handyman DIY and home improvement community.

Send us your DIY Projects, Bright Ideas, Letters and Questions for our DIY Experts

Readers are invited to submit their DIY and Home Improvement projects for publication in the magazine. These should include a complete description of what was done, together with good quality photographs. (Pictures sent must be at least 250KB. We prefer pictures of 1MB).

In addition you are also invited to send us your views and opinions for our “Voice your Views” column; your time-saving, space saving or innovative ideas for our “Bright Ideas” column. And don't forget our “Ask the Experts” column where our panel of experts answers your questions on DIY and Home improvement problems.

Submissions should be sent by e-mail to the editor, Gareth Greathead, at editorial@homehandyman.co.za
